

I am...

- Consider your existing knowledge of WTCS program students and data presented during the trivia session. If you knew these students well, what might they tell you about themselves?
- Populate the visual below with these facts. Examples may include: I have not been in the classroom for over ten years; I have a parent with a college credential who has helped me understand what to expect in college; I am often short on money.

